As we close out the season of driving and showing our cars, I want to thank everyone who attended our Spring Car Show at Sport Cadillac and/or the other region events throughout the year. You are helping to keep the old car community alive!

Thanks to the members who brought their cars to the City of Rockville show. For the first time in recent memory, there were more Cadillacs and LaSalle's than Packards at the show – read more about it in this issue. Thanks to Chuck Piel for promoting the event. It really paid off this year.

Our Cars & Coffee events have been a huge success. Christopher Winter has done a great job of planning them monthly in different areas of the region (read about the September one in this issue). On Sunday, October 16, we likely held our last one for 2022 at the beautiful Manor at Silo Falls in Olney, MD, followed by our monthly meeting. About six cars and seventeen people attended. As with other places, the host facility provided the coffee and donuts. The fall weather was great.

At around noon, eight of us went inside for the lunch meeting. One of the topics of discussion was the venue for the region's holiday party and possible dates for our 2023 Spring Car Show and Automobilia Auction at Sport Cadillac. Most liked the idea of having the holiday party at Silo Falls. As a result, Christopher will discuss with their management. Also discussed at the meeting was Fall Hershey. Then, around 2:00 pm we thanked the staff and left with our bellies full and smiles on our faces!

With the holiday season upon us, JoJo and I wish everyone a happy and safe Thanksgiving! Hope to see many of you soon.

IN MEMORIAM: WILLIAM "BILL" KOST BY NORALEE FRANKEL AND VINCE TALIANO

It is with a heavy heart that we report that longtime CLC Potomac Region member William "Bill" Kost of Springfield, VA passed away on July 17, 2022, at the age of 80. Born five days after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941, Bill grew up on his parents' farm in Vermont, IL (population 570 -- 2020 US Census). Later, he worked for the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) for over 30 years. His work on Cuban agriculture and his support for Cuban agricultural economists helped build bridges between our two counties. He was an intellectually curious man with many interests.

Bill was a prolific collector of automobile literature and models, and along with his wife, Noralee Frankel, a major donor to the Potomac Region's annual automobilia auctions. If members purchased Cadillac literature from the 1960s-70s at our Capitol Cadillac and Sport Cadillac car shows, chances are they were donations from his collection. He was a kind and generous man who cherished his membership in the club.

One of Bill's favorite activities was cooking. He was known for his biscuits, which he lovingly made for anyone who came over to spend time with him and Noralee. He also made jewelry for Noralee, leaving a part of himself with her.

Bill also collected stamps, political cartoons and animation cells. He donated countless political cartoons and animation art to the Library of Congress and to the Billy Ireland Cartoon Museum.

Bill and Noralee's cat now hisses at everyone who sits in his favorite kitchen chair. Noralee is also sentimental about that chair where Bill spent hours reading The Washington Post, working on his beloved stamp collection, and sipping tea while talking with her.

He is survived by Noralee and their daughter, Elizabeth Kost, DVM, and son-in-law, Sean Van Damme. Bill's legacy is imparting his interest in math and science and love of animals to Elizabeth.

Rest in peace, Bill!

NEW BUSINESS – CLC HELP WANTED:

Three key positions in our Club's organizational structure (VP, National Activities; Chair, Awards Committee and National Chief Judge) will be vacated soon. The Club is seeking nominations for each position and requires them to be vetted by the Nominating Committee (Lars Kneller, Chair).

Marsha Redman (VP, National Activities), Gary Fisher (Chair, Awards Committee) and Bill Anderson (National Chief Judge) have contributed mightily to the CLC through their many years of service. They will gladly assist their successors to ensure a smooth transition. They leave behind a proud legacy that will be remembered for many years to come. Contact Lars at cadtbird@aol.com with your suggestions for candidates.

A fourth position, Hershey Tent Coordinator, will also be vacated soon, but does not require vetting by the Nominating Committee. IS THERE A CADDY IN HER FUTURE? BY CHRISTOPHER WINTER

One observation about the old car hobby is that young people today don't seem as interested in old cars as when now-aging baby boomers were interested in them when they were young.

Maya, the young lady pictured right, happened to stop by the Potomac Region's Cars-n-Coffee, held at TGI Fridays in Rockville, MD on Saturday September 17. She loves old cars (and is an "old soul" according to her father). To say that Maya was ecstatic when Larry Good offered to take her for a ride in his '47 sedan would be an understatement.

As Maya piled into the passenger seat of Larry's car, she yelled "shotgun," like any young car enthusiast would. Larry and Maya cruised up and down Rockville Pike for 15 minutes or so, and she was thrilled. Cars-n-Coffee made her day. Who knows where this adventure will lead, but let it not be said that the Potomac Region doesn't plant seeds.

Thanks to everyone who turned out on that beautiful Saturday morning with their cars: Randy & Susan Denchfield ('62 Chevy Impala SS Convertible), Larry & Maia Good ('47 Series 61 Sedan), Bill Hilliard ('69 Eldorado), Rick Hunt ('76 Eldorado Convertible), Constantine Jiga ('59 Coupe Deville), Don Pace ('92 Brougham), Chuck Piel ('41 Series 62 Convertible) and Vince Taliano ('65 Sedan Deville).

65 YEARS AGO
BY VINCE TALIANO

The infamous raid of Mafia leaders gathered for a sit-down meeting in Apalachin, NY occurred in 1957, 65 years ago this month.

At some point, a photo of vehicles parked at an August 1994 Potomac Region picnic hosted at Nick Wilson's home was misidentified as a photo from the raid (see below right). It was posted on the copyright-free Wikimedia Commons and Wikipedia sites, where 75+ websites and the Smithsonian Magazine pulled it for use in stories and videos.

After this 'appropriation' came to our attention, we notified the Wikimedia and Smithsonian Magazine staff, who immediately removed the image. Other sites kept it. In one case, the National Crime Syndicate website had already included the image in a YouTube video they created titled What Happened at The Apalachin Meeting in 1957? It's still there at the 3:03-3:05 minute mark.

When the New York State Police officers became suspicious of all the expensive and lavish cars arriving in the small, quiet town, they wrote down license plate numbers to run checks, but didn't take any photographs, unfortunately. We can only imagine how many beautiful black Cadillac sedans were in Apalachin on that infamous day. None claiming that provenance has surfaced, as far as I know. Oh, the stories they could tell!

CADILLAC NOVELS BY STEPHEN CLARK

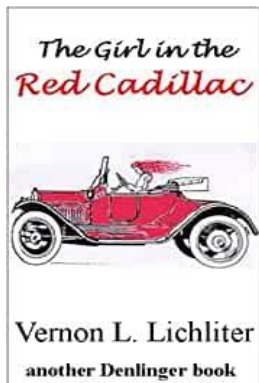

Since October 2021, I have now amassed over 130 books about Cadillacs, VWs and 1950-1970 automobiles. Here is another review of the better novels and movies I have seen.

The Hearse You Came In On by Tim Cockey. Fast-paced action murder mystery. One of the author's five books. The main character is Hitchcock Sewell, an undertaker who seems to get involved in everything, and sometimes with his Cadillac hearse. In this installment, a woman shows up at the funeral home talking about her own funeral arrangements. The mystery involves police corruption and political cover-ups. Takes place in Baltimore, MD with many local places where the action occurs, plus the title is a play on words from the famous saloon in Fells Point, The Horse You Came In On. 308 pages. *****

Murder In The Hearse Degree by Tim Cockey. Another Hitchcock Sewell excellent murder mystery where the undertaker sticks his nose where it doesn't belong. Hitch tries to prove a death is not suicide and gets involved in politics and a right-wing religious organization. Takes place in areas of Baltimore and Annapolis, MD. 324 pages.  (FYI: I am currently reading the fifth book by Tim Cockey titled Backstabber. Stay tuned for my review).

The Girl in the Red Cadillac by Vernon L. Lichliter. Adventurous and historic story that takes place between 1907-19. About the life of twin sisters, one who leaves home and marries an older gentleman who buys her a new 1912 Cadillac (the first year with a self-starter). She becomes a female race car driver and creates lots of excitement. Takes place in Virginia and Ohio. 278 pages. *****

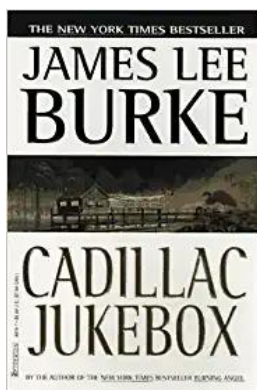

Cadillac & LaSalle Club Potomac Region Caddie Chronicle November 2022

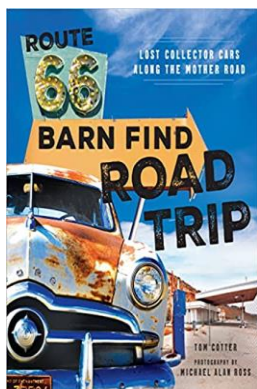

Orville's Divine Cadillac and Used Car Emporium by A.R. Marsh. Set of 22 character-driven short stories. Orville has the obsessive need to own everybody and everything around him. Religious involvement and plenty of Cadillacs. Takes place in a small North Carolina town. 182 pages. ****

Cadillac Beach by Tim Dorsey. Very popular and hysterical paperback. Fast paced and often confusing novel intertwining a 1964 jewel heist with current (at the time 2004) tourists as first-time Florida visitors. Several connected plots go on at same time. Cadillacs are all over the place. Mostly in the Miami, FL area. 384 pages. * (FYI – there are more Tim Dorsey novels, if you like his style).

Cadillac Jukebox by James Lee Burke. New York Times bestseller. Another very popular paperback. Adventurous story about corruption in the Louisiana bayou and is the ninth Dave Robicheaux thriller. Unfortunately, there is no Cadillac car star, but there is a Cadillac jukebox. 402 pages. * (FYI – one of many novels by James Lee Burke).

Route 66 Barn Find Road Trip by Tom Cotter, with photography by Michael Alan Ross. Fun pictorial story about a road trip from Lake Michigan to the Pacific coast along Route 66 in a 1939 Ford Woody Wagon. 2,000 mile 15-day journey. Takes place in 2016 and is loaded with fabulous pictures of cars and people and sites along the way. *****

CITY OF ROCKVILLE CAR SHOW BY SUSAN DENCHFIELD

There was happiness and anticipation on the faces of all who showed up on the City of Rockville's (MD) Civic Center field on the fine sunny morning of Saturday, October 15. The cars streamed in – no let-up in sight! And the food trucks lined up – more anticipation! And no rain and wind – just blue sky and sunshine.

People were so happy to be BACK. The cancellations the last two years were finally now just a sad memory. So, what's all the fuss about?

We had not seen many of those friends for a long time. We had not seen their cool cars either. The Rockville Car Show is special. For weeks we ran into people who smiled and said, "Rockville is ON this year!" Seems like it's the favorite car show of LOTS of people. This show has such a variety of self-propelled vehicles.

Randy and I attended with our grandchildren, who enjoyed playing with "Pumpkin's" rumble seat, our 1935 LaSalle Convertible Coupe. Hannah's favorite car at the show was the 1950s Mercedes pictured above right.

We look forward to next year's show!

CADILLACS AND LASALLES 17 PACKARDS 14

STORY BY VINCE TALIANO

PHOTOS BY THE CITY OF ROCKVILLE GOVERNMENT AND LYNN GARDNER

Thanks to the pre-show recruitment efforts led by Chuck Piel, the Cadillacs and LaSalles outnumbered the Packards 17-14 in the friendly competition between the two makes at the Annual City of Rockville Antique and Classic Car Show (FYI: Packards outnumbered Cadillacs at the previous show). The reason the results can be attributed to Chuck's efforts is because two days before the show Amanda Smigelsky-Knox (Special Events Coordinator for the City of Rockville) announced that a record number of cars were pre-registered, 626 to be exact and about 200 more than the last show in 2019. As a result, it was decided that no day of show registrations would be permitted due to space constraints. So, no unregistered Cadillacs, LaSalles or Packards were admitted on the day of the show after the owners woke up to a beautiful blue sunny sky.

Congratulations to Bob Ridolfi whose 1957 Eldorado Biarritz pictured right was selected as the Mayor and City Council Award winner, the only award officially presented at the show. One of the perks of winning the top prize is that Bob's car will be featured on next year's show dash plaques.
